PSI CHAPTER OF DELTA KAPPA EPSILON AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA ♦ FALL 2014

New Version of Sighs of Psi

Look for Full Edition Recapping Fall 2014 next January

Welcome to this edition of the Sighs of Psi. You'll first notice that this is shorter than the more recent Sighs that we've published. That's because we are "catching up" to ourselves. We are going to issue the fall 2014 edition sometime right after the New Year and report on what's happened at the Chapter this coming semester. The spring 2015 edition will come out during the summer and will report on the spring semester's activities along with the football schedule and the tentative date for Homecoming. By changing the schedule we hope to have more timely and interesting articles.

Speaking of Homecoming, you will note that the information request form had Homecoming erroneously marked as October 18 coinciding with the Texas A&M game. The actual date of the Homecoming weekend is November 22 and is corrected on this schedule. Both games will have the usual gameday festivities at the chapter house but there will be no parade for Texas A&M.

We've been busy preparing the house for the return to school and the Chapter has been busy building a strong pledge class. The biannual DKE International Convention was held at the Iota Chapter at Centre College in Danville, Kentucky. The Phi Alpha chapter took home the Lion Trophy but Psi made its mark. Richard Pipkins was elected to be the undergraduate member on the DKE International board, taking the place of Davis Vaughn. The position is a seat on the national board and a Psi Chapter member has held it for two back to back terms – quite the honor for Davis, Richard and the Chapter.

I will mimic the abbreviated version of the Sighs and sign off here. Look for the next edition to post sometime early 2015 that will be more current and (as we say back in Louisiana) mo betta.

Black Chaffe '83
